

CHRISTMAS

draws nearer

MESSAGES FROM THE EDITORS

Dear Friends and Family,
 Come down to the school and watch me work! - Aiden
 "I am very excited to begin school soon!" - Mataya
 "Hello Little One!" - Austin
 "I am not one of those students who often get caught playing Smash karts!!!" - Raina

ON THE HIGHSCHOOLERS

The Highschoolers are currently all diligently working away, be it on their essay or a module for Geo class. Yes, Noella often has to use her Lanschool powers to block sites such as smash karts or google chat. Students when being interviewed passionately speak about their newfound knowledge on the reformation and verb conjugation. Busy as bees those cuties are. Keep up the good work Noella!

"THE ONLY WAY TO HAVE A FRIEND IS TO BE ONE."

-RALPH WALDO EMERSON

MRS. JENSEN'S STUDENTS

Meanwhile in Mrs. Jensen's "busy" little corner the middle and early years tirelessly labor away on numerous topics. "I have really enjoyed learning about the fascinating solar system!" Aiden says when asked. Aiden also stated yesterday when he showed up that he was really excited to learn about the importance of clean water in social studies but shed a tear when S.S wasn't on the schedule. In math he reports that he is learning about fractions, decimal, percent, and ordering these numbers.

GUIDANCE COUNSELLOR

November's Guidance lessons continued with the theme of friendship. The Berenstain Bears helped to demonstrate how conflicts between friends arise sometimes, and that we need to compromise and cooperate to preserve relationships with our friends. We were reminded to speak kindly and to think before we say something because words have power and can hurt someone deeply. We completed this lesson with making "bookmark buddies. think before we say something because words have power and can hurt someone deeply.
