

It is hard to believe that June is already here! The children might disagree, but it feels like the school year is just flying by. Before we know it, summer holidays will begin – but not yet! We still have plenty of school work to do to get ready for the next grade!

Mrs. Palcat will be coming on Tuesday, June 9 to collect our Bookmobile books. Please make sure all books are returned to school! Individuals will need to pay for any missing books so it is worth putting in some extra effort to locate the stragglers.

On Friday, June 12, we will be holding a Portfolio morning – a chance for Meadow Lane students to show their community how they have improved and grown as learners over the school year. This will be a come-and-go event from 9:00 to 11:00. Colony members are invited to come to the school at any time over those two hours to check out displays of student work and projects, and ask students questions about what they have done. Everyone is welcome!

We will celebrate Meadow Lane's dads at the annual Father's Day BBQ on Wednesday, June 17. It's being held on a Wednesday so that Mr. Sobie will be able to join us – and more importantly, barbecue for us! We look forward to having a good visit and tasty patties with all the dads and men over 30 years old!

Mark your calendars for the picnic on Wednesday, June 24 (another Wednesday to have Mr. Sobie in attendance)! Hopefully the weather will cooperate and we can celebrate the end of the year with sunshine, blue skies, and a terrific baseball game.
